

#1 Raising Questions While You Read

- Ask question: questions should be thought provoking
- Include a sentence of why you asked this question or your own thoughts about it
- Include page number
- (Question may lead to a prediction about the book)
- Name belongs on the back of the post-it.

#2 Responding to a Quote

- Include quote
- Include page number
- Include two or three sentences of response
- Response should be clear as to why you chose that particular quote to respond to
- Name MUST go on back of post-it

#3 Making Connections

- Include quote or paraphrase section that you are making a connection to.
- Include page number
- Include type of connection
- Include personal connection, connection to another text, or connection to world/culture
- Name MUST go on back of Post-it

#4 Vocabulary

- Include vocab word
- Include sentence vocab word is in
- Include page number
- Include DEFINITION from a dictionary
- Name belongs on the back of the post-it!!!!

#5 Characteristic Inferences

- Include character's name
- Include inferred characteristic
- Include quote or paraphrase section that supports your inference – explain if needed
- Include page number
- Name belongs on the back of the post-it!!!!